FPT CMMC 220211

February 11, 2022 11:33 AM

11:34

- Alberta
  - Essentially two obstructions at Coutts crossing
  - No heavy lift capacity
  - Alberta - aide to civil power request army has denied the request to use CAF heavy lift capacity.
  - Anticipating a 1000 further protestors coming this weekend.
- Ontario
  - Emergency authorities are being enacted - tomorrow
  - Government looking at enacting emergency measures to enhance police powers
  - Seeing a strategy of bringing children to the protests
    - Ontario linking in with MCF with the Ontario incident command.
  - Looking at emergency powers over two day periods
- Dominic Rochon, ADM National and Cyber Security
  - RCMP/CSIS tracking rhetoric around government removal, etc
    - Very loose and not organized
    - No specific direction or organization
  - Some extremist activity online
  - Nothing they have seen that constitutes true sedition, or extremist actions.
  - No listed organizations that are making significant financial contributions
    - Includes Proud Boys and similar organizations
  - Similar situation in the USA - very similar experience
  - Possible idea that tickets issued in these circumstances may disqualify entrance.
- Transport Canada - Aaron McCrorie
  - Document out next week with options.
  - Strategic enforcement strategy
    - Communication
      - Illegal behaviour has consequences and are not tolerable
      - Warn people engaged in the illegal behaviour that federal and provincial authorities will amplify regular enforcement options.
      - Encourage police to lay charges.
      - Using Ministry of Transport - pulling licences, impacting insurance
      - Using Motor Carrier Enforcement
      - Using Crown to maximize request for punishment
      - Message: get out now
      - Highlight charges when we lay them.
    - Tow Trucks
      - Mix of carrot and sticks
      - TC does not have direct authority over this.
      - Pay premium for participation
      - Will disqualify some vendors from getting Federal contracts